POLICE MAKE ANOTHER RAID

THIRTEEN PINTS AND TWO SUSPECTS CAPTURED.

Between 4 and 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon Chief Hounshell and Policeman Walter Goynne made another raid, resulting in the capture of thirteen and a half pints of booze and the arrest of W. C. Willis, a shoemaker, and Charles Ellis. The house is on West Main street and is occupied by Willis as a residence. Willis was not at home at the time the raid was made, but Ellis was there and when he saw the officers approaching locked the house and took to his heels. The chief soon overhauled him, however, and forced him to unlock. As the chief started upstairs, he felt the second step give slightly under his foot. Investigation showed that it was hung on hinges, and when turned back revealed the presence of thirteen full pint bottles and another partly empty from which some one had evidently been selling liquor by the drink. Both Ellis and Willis were arrested and made bond for their appearance in the police court Wednesday.

Judge T. D. McKown made a trip to Atoka today to look after some legal matters.

WIRES HASKELL TO PROTECT MEXICAN

Oklahoma City, Nov. 13.—From Washington Sunday night Gov. Charles N. Haskell received a message from Secretary of State Philander C. Knox, requesting that he take every precaution to prevent a recurrence at Anadarko of the Texas incident in which a Mexican was put to death at the stake in the event the Mexican who killed the chief of police in Anadarko Saturday night is apprehended.

Secretary Knox gave as his reason for making the request the strained relations that exist between Mexico and the United States growing out of the Texas incident and the subsequent resentful attitude assumed by Mexicans towards American citizens in the City of Mexico.

Immediately upon receipt of the message from Washington Governor Haskell communicated with the sheriff at Anadarko, urging him to use every precaution to protect the murderer of the chief of police from mob violence, suggesting that in the event the sheriff deemed it necessary to call on the governor for assistance.

Waterworks Question at Allen.

The preliminary work for the waterworks in Allen is progressing as rapidly as is possible under the circumstances.

Messrs. Eckman & Tolbert are getting the final papers ready for the approval of the bonds by Attorney General West and they will be submitted to him by next week.

Mr. Tolbert was in Allen last Saturday and expressed the hope that work would be under way by December 1.

They are in touch with prospective bond buyers and hope to find a buyer soon.

The Board of Trustees held a meeting last Saturday night and decided to sink a test well before commencing work at the spring.

It is estimated that the test well will cost $275 and that it should furnish 400,000 gallons of water per day of 24 hours. It is also estimated that if the test well proves a success that it will save the town $6,000.—Allen Hustler.

Booze Trials Set for Friday.

The trials of all parties arrested as a result of the two raids for bootlegging made by the police Saturday have been postponed until Friday.

BANK GUARANTY LAW BEFORE SUPREME COURT

Washington, Nov. 13.—"What the depositors want to know is that their deposits are secure; that they can get their money when they call for it. This explanation is intended to afford them that assurance."

This is the burden of a printed argument filed in the supreme court of the United States by Chas. O. Whedon, on behalf of the state of Nebraska, in defense of the constitutionality of the statute guaranteeing the deposits in the banks of that state.

Oral arguments on the validity of this law and similar enactments in Oklahoma and in Kansas will be heard by the supreme court either just before or immediately after the Christmas holidays.

The statute is defended against the attack that it conflicts with the Declaration of Independence and the Nebraska Constitution in that it interferes with the right to pursue happiness including the pursuing of any lawful vocations.

"Necessarily, the individual must surrender some of his rights to society," it is argued in the brief, "and he surrenders the most valuable of all so-called inalienable rights when he concedes the rights of society to deprive him of life and liberty, when he violates its rules."

Mr. Whedon holds that he had been left to the states to determine what tends to promote not only the public health and morals, but the public welfare and safety as well.

Democrats Carry Marshall County.

When the election returns first began to come in it began to look as if Marshall county had been carried by the socialists. The complete figures, however, show that Cruce received 845 votes against 389 for McNeal and 501 for Cumble. The democratic vote for county officers was about the same as for the state ticket, but the republicans voted the socialist county ticket almost to a man, and succeeded in electing the socialist nominee for sheriff by nine votes and one commissioner by 60.

We have observed that the fellow who stops his paper because he does not like the editor or something he says, usually borrows his neighbor's paper to "keep up with what the infernal sheet is saying, anyway."

MAY DISPOSE OF INDIAN LANDS

CHOCTAWS AND CHICKASAWS PREPARE BILL TO SELL SEGREGATED LAND.

Oklahoma City, Nov. 13.—E. P. Hill of McAlester, Okla., was in Oklahoma City Saturday, returning to his home from Ardmore, where he attended a hearing of the claims of the Chickasaw Indians to be admitted to the citizenship rolls of the Chickasaw tribe. Mr. Hill is the attorney for the Choctaw Indians, some of whom have similar claims.

All of these claims were presented to congress at its last session, but that body refused to reopen the rolls. However, they recommended to the interior department that the claims be investigated, and, if injustice had been done the claimants another bill could be prepared. Judge W. C. Pollock, one of the attorneys of the department of the interior, is conducting the investigation.

The hearing at Ardmore will be closed this week and then Judge Pollock will go to McAlester to hold the hearing for the Choctaws.

Mr. Hill said that the chances are good to get the coal lands of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians sold and their affairs wound up within the next two years. At a recent conference between the attorneys of the two tribes, a bill was drawn up providing for the sale of these lands. At the conference the Chickasaws were represented by the firm of Rogers & Clapp of Ardmore, and Governor D. H. Johnston of the tribe. The Choctaws were represented by E. P. Hill and D. C. McCurtain of McAlester, and Hamp Willis, coal trustee of the tribe. The bill agreed upon will be presented at a conference of these representatives with delegates of the commercial clubs of the cities of Oklahoma within this coal district. This conference will be held at McAlester Tuesday, Nov.

15. Whatever is agreed upon there will be presented to congress.

Bill Plans Land Sales.

The bill agreed upon at the conference between the Chickasaws and Choctaws provides for the immediate sale of the segregated coal lands belonging to these Indian tribes. It provides for the sale of both the surface lands and the mineral rights but each is to be sold separate from the other. The sale of one is not dependent upon the sale of the other. As soon as the lands are sold, the bill provides for the immediate distribution of the funds, which will mean that the tribes would receive several millions of dollars. The bill as it will be presented, will have the support of the Indians themselves, the white people of the district and all five of the Oklahoma congressmen, so that it will undoubtedly be made a law.

Hill Is Hopeful.

Mr. Hill is very optimistic over the outlook for Indian legislation from the six-second congress, which will have a democratic house. Congressman John H. Stephens of Texas will likely succeed to the chairmanship of the committee of the house on Indian affairs, and it is almost a certainty that Representative Charles Carter of the Fourth Oklahoma district, will be put back on that committee. Both of these men are very familiar with Indian conditions and should produce very favorable legislation along that line. "It is also true," said Mr. Hill, "that the Gore investigation has opened the way for better and cleaner conditions, even if the charges are not proven. Always before when Indian legislation came before congress, if the big fee hunters could not control the outcome of the legislation, they would defeat the bills. Now they are out of the way, and we expect to get Indian affairs closed up within a short time."

APACHES DANCE IN HONOR OF MAIDEN

MINNIE DOAS KADO OF FT. SILL TO CHOOSE HUSBAND BEFORE SUN RISES.

"BUCK" CANNOT REFUSE

Selection Must Be Approved by Tribe and Marriage Follows Quickly.

Lawton, Ok., Nov. 12.—Again the Apache Indians are engaged in a great feast and dance. This time it is in honor of Minnie Doas Kado, the 14-year-old maiden daughter of Dora Istee, a widow. The dancing began last night upon the Fort Sill military reserve and will close at sunrise tomorrow morning.

In order that the 254 members of the tribe who are held as prisoners of war, might all enjoy the festivities, Asa Daklugie ordered a two-day holding lasting through Friday and Saturday. Before the night has passed away Miss Minnie will have selected herself a helpmate.

Hundreds of dollars have been spent preparing for the dance. A religious service was held before spectators were permitted to witness the dancing.

Braves Start Dance.

A medicine man offered prayers for the sick of the tribe and for its general welfare. The public dance was then announced and the side curtains of the tent drawn aside. Several selected braves danced about a fire singing weird songs to the music of tom-toms. The fire represented the Indian maiden advancing into womanhood and as the bucks danced they thrust sticks into the fire, believing this performance would drive away all evil tendencies in the life of the young woman.

The braves then retired and the girl, accompanied by another girl, bedecked in fine buckskin robes and jewelry and beads, began to dance. The medicine men then follow with a sacred dance, stripped to the waist and painted gorgeously. Clown dancers, in grotesque costume, then appeared.

"Lovers' Dance."

Then followed the most important dance of them all, the lover's dance, which sometimes lasts until the braves and maidens fall from exhaustion. It is during this dance, which is going on tonight, that a buck will be selected by the girl as her husband.

Previous to her debut, which the lovers' dance means to the Indians, no girl is allowed to have a sweetheart. No buck will refuse to take the girl in marriage. If he should he had better leave the tribe. The selection of the girl must be sanctioned by the tribe and the marriage generally follows immediately. At the lovers' dance the older members of the tribe do not participate.

Dr. F. Strausbaugh returned this morning from a week's trip through Western Kansas and Oklahoma.

CHAMP CLARK TO OPEN CAMPAIGN

GOES TO WASHINGTON TO LOOK AFTER INTERESTS IN FIGHT FOR SPEAKERSHIP.

Washington, Nov. 13.—The contest for the speakership of the next house will be formally begun in Washington tomorrow with the arrival here of Champ Clark of Missouri, present floor leader of the democrats, and leading candidate for the successorship to Uncle Joe Cannon.

The fight for the clerkship of the House, a $7,500 a year position, which has been held by Major Alexander McDowell of Pennsylvania since the Fifty-Fourth congress, will also open up at once with no less than three avowed candidates in the field. These are Representative Leonidas Livingston of Georgia, who will retire from congress on March 4, next, after a service of twenty years; former representative William Preston Kimball of the Seventh Kentucky district, who was a member of the last congress, and former representative South Trimble of the same district, who was a member of the Fifty-Ninth congress.

Others Seek Clerkship.

Undoubtedly there will be other candidates for the clerkship, and the fight for this desirable job will probably be much livelier than that for the speakership. In many quarters predictions are heard that Champ Clark will have a walk-over for Uncle Joe's place, owing to the prestige he has gained as floor leader of the minority since the retirement of John Sharp Williams of Mississippi.

Strong Men Support Clark.

There is no question that some of the strongest men on the democratic side of the present congress, like Ollie James of Kentucky and Albert Burleson of Texas, will leave nothing undone to insure the election of the Missouri leader. There is also no question that to refuse the honor would cause extreme bitterness among his friends that would be bad for the party in the house through the next congress.

Minority Leader Several Sessions.

The fact that he has led the minority for several sessions gives him and his friends ample justification for putting out the claim that he is entitled to the gavel when his party comes into power of the house. At this time it is not easy to see how a combination can be formed that will defeat him. The feeling, therefore, is general in Washington that the claim of his friends that he will be elected without serious difficulty is well founded.

Mrs. Frances Virginia Simmons Dead.

Last night Mrs. Frances Virginia Simmons, aged 80, died at the home of her son, Walter Simmons, four miles southwest of town. The immediate cause of her death was dropsy. The remains will be interred at five o'clock this afternoon at Rosedale cemetery.

Editors are often accused of being about the most profuse and artistic liars that one comes in contact with. Well, if the situation is gone over carefully, it will be found that about all the lying they do is for their communities. Swamptown may be composed of a couple of dozen of tumbledown shacks, but the editor must never admit that it is anything but the metropolis of that section and ha it is soon to become a second Chicago. The community may have some very hard old skin-flints among its citizenship, but the editor must not admit it. The town has nothing but hustling and progressive citizens. Even when the stingiest old Shylock that ever stole the butter from the bread of the unfortunate or refused to pay for his paper dies, editors are expected to cover all his faults with the mantle of his boundless charity and describe the old guy as a well qualified member of the choir with golden harps.
Whether anyone else in the town boasts or not, the editor must keep pounding away all the time. Yes, the average editor is the best friend the public has, and if on account of his lies about the good qualities of his fellow citizens he is consigned to the regions of fire, the folks for whose sake he went there should sign a petition for his pardon.

Now that prohibition has won out again, papers throughout the state are voicing a demand by the people that the law be enforced. This is as it should be. The majority is supposed to rule, but heretofore a small minority of bootleggers, aided and abetted by the brewers and distillers, have made a strenuous effort to rule the majority and run roughshod over it. They went a little too far, however, and now the demand that the law be enforced will be stern enough to knock the dishonest or weak official who is unable to make a fair showing, completely out of his office.
The next legislature will doubtless strengthen several weak places in the law and make the conviction of bootleggers easier. Then the convicted ones should be put on the road. Sixty days of rock breaking will be much more effective towards breaking up the traffic than all the fines that can be imposed or all the paroles that could be issued. The people have spoken and the officers should everywhere do their part or resign.

A lively newspaper scrap is in progress at Oklahoma City. The Pointer, a popular afternoon free daily, is to have a rival in the Free Press, a free afternoon paper to be published by the Oklahoman. The Pointer now proposes to retaliate by getting out for free distribution a morning daily in opposition to the Oklahoman. As the overpowering greed of the Oklahoman in selling space to the republicans to attack democratic candidates during the closing days of the campaign has embittered many democrats, the Pointer will probably receive some cordial support.

There are two kinds of politeness;
one that comes natural and carries cordiality and good will with it, and the other the patronizing variety that

CALUMET The BAKING POWDER

That Makes the Baking Better

Failures are almost impossible with Calumet.
We know that it will give you better results.
We know that the baking will be purer
—more wholesome.
We know that it will be more evenly raised.
And we know that Calumet is more economical, both in its use and cost.
We know these things because we have put the quality into it—we have seen it tried out in every way. It is used now in millions of homes and its sales are growing daily. It is the modern baking powder.
Have you tried it?
Calumet is highest in quality—moderate in price.

excites hostility rather than friendship, for no man likes to feel that the other fellow is polite just because he hopes to receive something in return. In other words a man who makes the impression that he is doing you a special favor in noticing you at all, is one who makes a few friends.

The election or close running of republican candidates in a number of counties indicates that many democrats are paying little attention to the implied pledge to support the nominees when they enter the party primary. This independent voting will prove something of a problem if the people once catch the habit.

The way the police of Ada are prying into the bootlegging trade indicates that from henceforth the way of the bootlegger in Ada is going to be a rough one.

Fools Will Die.

The following was written by a country editor in a country church yard; it is the finished product of a mind chuck full of grey matter pretty well worked with the leaven of common sense: "Take a walk through any of our cemeteries and you will see that even the fool passeth away.
Here the last resting place of the man who blew in any empty gun;
there the tombstone of the woman who lighted the fire with kerosene, a grass carpeted mound covers the grave of the man who took the mule by the tail. The monument of the boy who didn't know the gun was loaded is greatly overshadowed by that of a man who jumped from a train to save a ten yard walk. Side by side lay the esthetic creature who kept her corset laced to the hole and wore lownecked dresses in winter and the intelligent idiot that rode a bicycle nine miles in ten minutes, beneath that mound of yellow clay rests the cork headed chappie who sucked death from the lucious cigarette in a few sweet moments, while beneath the weeping willow, gathered in a tin pail, rests in peace the battered remains of the aeronaut. Here reposes the doctor who took his own medicine. Down there in the potter's field with his feet sticking out to the cold blasts of winter and the blustering rays of the summer sun, are stretching the remains of the editor while the broken bones of the man who refused to pay for his paper are piled in the corner of the fence. Over by the gate softly rests the woman who kept strychnine with the baking powder in the cupboard."

HOW LOVING-CUP ORIGINATED

Interesting Story Telling How Powerful King of Ancient Taught Ignorant Lesson.

The so-called "loving-cup" is common nowadays and we see it everywhere. But many years ago there were no such things as these queer three-handled affairs, and the following story tells how they first happened to be made:

Once upon a time, centuries before us there lived a great and powerful king who was extremely fond of hunting. He was one day in a huge forest pursuing a stag, but it was so fleet and clever that it eluded him and his band of followers, and led them entirely out of their way. After wandering about in a hopeless fashion they finally came upon a little hut and the king himself dismounted and rapped smartly upon the door.

A young girl answered his knock and soon showed the men the right path. The king was about to go when he saw a well near the house and at the sight of the clear water immediately felt thirsty, and going back, asked the girl for a drink. Without hesitation she went into the house and came out with an earthen jug filled with the well water. But, instead of offering his royal majesty the handle, as most people would, she held that herself and handed him the cup the wrong way.

The king said nothing, thanked the girl, and he and his band soon found their way out of the woods.

But when he reached his palace, he determined to reward the girl for giving him the water and at the same time to teach her a lesson in politeness.

Sending to his jeweler, he bade him make a silver cup with two handles and deliver it to the young girl without a word from whence it came.

Perhaps a month after this the king again hunted in that same forest, sought the little hut, and asked the girl for another drink of water.

This time she entered the house and came out with a beautiful silver cup full of sparkling water.

"Now," thought the king, "she has certainly learned a lesson." But never was he more mistaken, for the poor, ignorant girl took a handle in each hand and for the second time offered her liege lord nothing but the side of the cup.

The king rode away deeply perplexed. He was still resolved to teach the girl the polite way to hand a cup without directly rebuking her, and many were the hours he spent in cud-geling his brains for some way in which to do it. At last a bright idea struck him, and he sent for his jeweler a second time.

"Make me," said he to the man, "a silver cup, heavily chased, and with my royal crest and put three handles on it."

The jeweler much surprised (for remember no such thing had ever been heard of up to this time), did as he was told, and soon the mug was finished. As before, the king had it privately sent to the girl who lived in the little hut.

One day not long after this for the third time he rode into that forest, and taking the now well known path soon reached the cottage. Dismounting he knocked at the door and asked humbly for a drink of clear water.

The girl immediately came out with the beautiful three-handled cup and taking two of the handles in her hands she offered him the third.

So the king rode away, well pleased with his strategy, and reaching home, ordered three-handled cups to be made in every sort of ware, and they became so popular that we now have them in all our shops and stores.

POPULAR GAME OF "CUTTING"

Always Finds Favor With Boys and Girls—Simple Prizes Given to Winners.

A game of "cutting" always finds favor with boys and girls. Provide each person with an old magazine, a pair of scissors, a small cup of home-made paste and a brush made by folding a piece of paper many times and then finely slashing one end. Besides these things give to each player several sheets of plain paper a little larger than a magazine page. Each person is to cut out any picture or parts of pictures he chooses and mount them on the plain paper to make new pictures. After half an hour all of the pictures should be placed where they may be seen. Simple prizes should be given to those making the prettiest, the most comical or the most original sheets.

BETTY'S CAKE-WALK.

When Betty saw a cake-walk,
She laughed at all the fun
And thought it was the strangest thing
She'd seen beneath the sun.
The bowing and the dipping
She taught her dolls next day,
Though it was quite ridiculous
To walk that silly way.

When Betty takes a cake-walk
There's something at the end;
She doesn't learn to scrape and bow,
And turn and twist and bend.
But onward like a soldier
She marches to the fore;
The end of Betty's cake-walk
Is at the pantry door.

Miles Grigsby and wife have moved to Lockhart, where Miles will edit and manage the Register, one of the oldest weekly papers in the state. They left for their new home Saturday night. Miles is one of the best all-round printers and newspaper men in the country and we regretted very much that he left us. He had been connected with the News Herald for 14 years with the exception of two years spent in Oklahoma and in the Panhandle. He learned the trade in this office and remained with the first love a long time. He is an honest and conscientious worker and could be depended on at all times. But of course he expects to do better down there and the News Herald hopes his most sanguine expectations will be realized. Lockhart is a good town and a county seat, and can support two weekly and one daily paper all right. A Breezy Picnic.
Mrs. McGurran and a number of her pupils at the normal are enjoying a picnic on the creek today. Rather a breezy day for an event of the kind, but young folks don't mind a trifle like a cool day.

Bond-West.
On Saturday evening at 6:30 at the home of Johnnie Hurt, occurred a quiet wedding. The contracting parties were R. S. Bond and Miss Claude West. The ceremony was witnessed by a few intimate friends. O. E. Fowler, pastor of North Ada Baptist church officiated. Mr. Bond is one of Ada's most worthy citizens and numbers his friends by the score while Miss West is a most amiable and industrious young lady.

We congratulate them and predict for them a happy and prosperous journey.

Flynn Purchases Daily Times.

It is understood that Dennis T. Flynn, a prominent republican, former chairman of the state republican central committee, has purchased the Oklahoma City Times. This information was obtained Sunday afternoon from a reliable source.

Mr. Flynn has for a long time owned a large block of stock in the Times. It is believed that Mr. Flynn will at once assume the personal management of his paper, and that there will be several changes on the staff and in the business department.

That Mr. Flynn has the endorsement and backing of many republicans in the conduct of the Times is believed certain. He still wields a great deal of power in politics.

ELOQUENT SERMONS AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The pulpit of the First Presbyterian church was occupied yesterday morning and evening by Dr. Terhune, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Huntington, Ind. Both discourses were very scholarly and full of sound teaching, but were at the same time couched in simple and elegant language that served to make it all the more impressive. Large congregations greeted him at both services.

Dr. Terhune left for the north on the mid-night train. However he leaves many warm friends behind him as a result of his trip to Ada.

Death of Gus Carrollton.

A very large crowd attended the burial of Gus Carrollton yesterday at the old Midland cemetery. Deceased was a member of the W. O. W. and the funeral was conducted by that order. About two years ago Mr. Carrollton was adjudged insane and was in the sanitarium at Norman at the time of his death.

Democrats in Control.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 12.—The returns from the recent election show that the democrats will control both houses of the next legislature with substantial majorities. The democrats will have considerably more than a two-thirds majority in the house, but will fall one short of having a two-thirds majority in the senate unless one or more democrat is added by contest proceedings.

The political complexion of the house will be 32 republicans, 25 democrats with two in doubt. The senate will be constituted of 15 republicans and 29 democrats.

In the last legislature the Republicans had 41 members of the house and 10 members of the senate, showing a loss of 9 by the republicans, with a possible 7 members of the house, and a republican gain of 5 members in the senate over the last legislature.

Of the 153 votes on joint ballot, the republicans will have 47 sure, with a possible 49, and the democrats 104 sure, with a possible of 106, insuring the democrats a two-thirds majority on joint ballot. This will enable the democrats to put through joint resolutions proposing amendments to the constitution where the party strength is united upon them. The combined voting strength of the republicans on joint ballot in the last legislature was 51, and in the next legislature it will be 47, with a possible 49. This is a remarkable showing for the republican party in view of the fact that the democrats disfranchised at least 15,000 republican voters in the state by the adoption of the grandfather clause. In spite of the grandfather clause A. C. Hamlin, a negro of Logan county, was re-elected a member of the house.

ELECTION INSPECTOR FREED

AT PAULS VALLEY

Pauls Valley, Okla., Nov. 13.—United States Commissioner Verne handed down a decision Saturday that Lee Jones, election official, charged by Clark Curry, a negro, with violating the federal statutes by refusing him a vote when he presented affidavit, was not guilty. The decision was based on evidence introduced to show that the negro was ignorant of the contents of the complaint he had been persuaded to sign and unable to read and write, as well.

It is probable that a charge will be preferred against at least one prominent republican Monday. Several republicans, it is said, stayed around the polls on election day, attempting to interfere as the negroes tried to vote.

Railroad Amendment Defeated.

Guthrie, Ok., Nov. 13.—All indications point to the defeat at the polls last Tuesday of the proposed amendment to the state constitution generally known as the "railroad amendment," which had for its purpose to give railroad companies the right to purchase other lines of railway within the state. It was referred to a vote of the people by the 1909 legislature and sought to amend article 9, section 9 of the constitution.

The state corporation commission, with Col. Jack Love as chairman, bitterly opposed the adoption of the amendment, although it was understood the commission would keep hands off in that the amendment was referred by a democratic legislature and had not been attacked publicly by any democratic leader.

One of the principal grounds stated by Chairman Love for opposing the amendment was that he is opposed to letting the railroads amend the constitution at all, even though they do not profit by the amendment, because, he declared, it would give them a wedge to work in other amendments which might lessen the powers of the commission.

The amendment was drawn with the view of encouraging railroad building in Oklahoma, since it would permit an independent company to build a line or an extension and then dispose of it to the systems operating in the state. A similar amendment, because of the opposition of the corporation commission, was defeated at the polls on Aug. 2 last, when the state primaries were held.

Quiet Prevails in Mexico City.

Mexico City, Nov. 13.—Sunday, to which both the authorities and the American residents looked forward with more or less uneasiness, passed without renewal of the demonstrations of the last few days, and the feeling that the end of the trouble had come seemed general.

There was no relaxation of vigilance by the authorities and during the day and night strong patrols of police were on guard in the business district and in the American residence section.

Dispatches from Guadalajara today reported no violence last night. A proclamation that any gathering of five or more persons on the streets would be dispersed by the police had a quieting effect on the students and the vicious element, and no disturbance was attempted.

Federal and state cavalry patrolled the streets throughout the night.

Baptists to Meet at Enid Tuesday.

Enid, Okla., Nov. 13.—Three thousand delegates and visitors are expected here next week to attend the annual convention of the Baptists of the state. The convention will be opened Tuesday and will continue until Friday night.

Characters of national and international prominence will attend and deliver addresses. Dr. Gardner and Dr. Barnes of New York city, two noted missionaries, will speak. Dr. Gardner will speak Tuesday afternoon.

The annual conventions of several auxiliary organizations will be held in connection with the church gathering.

Chief of Police Killed.

Anadarko, Ok., Nov. 13.—Bloodhounds and officers from the state reformatory at Granite arrived here this morning to aid in the search for a Mexican accused of slaying Police Chief W. C. Temple at his home Saturday night. It is believed that the fugitive is hiding somewhere in the county and officers are confident he will be driven out by starvation within the next few days.

NO MONKEYING SAYS HASKELL

Oklahoma City, Nov. 13.—Declaring that he intended to prosecute the men who figured in the recent attempts at ballot box stuffing and intimidation of election officials, Gov. C. N. Haskell gave out a statement Saturday evening in which he hints that several prominent men will be implicated in the investigation which he intends to force. Attorney General Charles West will file proceedings.

The governor declares that he has received a number of complaints regarding the tampering with ballot boxes from Logan, Lincoln and other counties and reiterates that the law will be invoked to secure justice. The statement follows:

"Numerous complaints have been made to me concerning the outrageous violations of the state election law where men prominent in the affairs of life have by threats and other unlawful methods so intimidated precinct election officers as to terrify them into open violation of the amendment adopted by the people on the second day of last August. It may as well be distinctly understood now that the mere fact that they succeeded in getting ballot boxes stuffed by large numbers of votes from disqualified voters does not constitute a lawful election and yield to those law violators the fruits of victory."

"The people of Oklahoma are entitled to have their officers elected by the votes of those only who are lawfully entitled to vote, and in the few counties in the central part of our state where the late constitutional amendment was absolutely ignored, the attorney general will take the matter in hand and he can be depended upon to prevent the unlawful stuffing of ballot boxes thwarting the will of the legal voter."

"This may delay the canvassing of ballots in three or four counties affecting local officers, but the people can depend upon it that they will have, first, a judicial determination of such unlawful procedure and an open, public, honest count of the votes that the people have cast who were entitled to vote and none others."

Origin of Word "Oklahoma."

Considerable discussion has been heard concerning the meaning of the word "Oklahoma," and lately Gov. Byrd has given the matter a little study. In a very old work by Cushman, a man whose father spent many years as a missionary among the Choctaws, and who himself spent his entire life with the tribe, he finds that the latter part of the name—homa—is a corruption of the Choctaw word humma, meaning red. He says there is no question about the meaning of the first part—Okla, that being the word for man. Therefore, Gov. Byrd says that "redman" is all the term can mean.

The word "Alabama" is usually taken to mean: "here we rest," but Gov. Byrd finds from Cushman's book that it is a corruption of the two words ulla and bamma, meaning: "The only child of his parents," this being the name of one of the earliest and most noted chiefs of the Choctaw tribe. Going further he says that the word "Tallahassee" is a corruption of the two Choctaw words tulla, stone and huchba, river. In short, Stone river.

INSURES LIVES AND LIMBS OF THE SPECTATORS

The management of the International Aviation Tournament at Belmont Park took out insurance against the possibility of injuring the spectators, with Lloyds of London, to the amount of $500,000 at the rate of $2,500. Lloyds assumed all liability for the period of the meeting. The risk, however, covered spectators only. Policies had also been taken out with a New Jersey insurance company on the aeroplanes to be used at the meeting, covering risks from the point of shipment during transportation, and while they were in the shelter houses at Belmont Park. Numerous policies covering the liability of employers for accidents to employees were taken out for the meeting, most of which policies are for $10,000 and a few for $5,000. They included the workmen's compensation indorsement, as well as the ordinary insurance. Aeroplane sheds and other temporary structures on the park grounds were insured for $25,000.

Asphalt Work to Begin Tomorrow.

The steam roller to be used in spreading the asphalt paving arrived yesterday and is being put in shape for work today. We are told that work will begin on South Broadway tomorrow. ## CHILDREN WITH SAME NAME

Three Small Youngsters Perplexed at Old Gentleman's Remark Until He Explains.

There were once three children whose names were Elizabeth, Dorothy and Theodore. They were sisters and brother. One day an old gentleman—a friend of their mother's—came to see them and when he had asked their names he said:

"Well, well; so you all have the same name."

"Oh, no," explained Elizabeth, who thought the old gentleman must be a little deaf, "I am Elizabeth, my sister is Dorothy and my brother is Theodore."

"And those names mean just the same thing!" explained the old gentleman. "Theodore in Greek means 'gift of God,' Dorothy is the same name with the last syllable first and the first syllable last. And Elizabeth means 'gift of God' in Hebrew. But you all seem to be unusually nice children. I think you quite deserve your names."

STRANGE!

"I think," said Elizabeth Jane, "To the general eye it is plain. That Rosalie May Grows larger each day; Her dress must be lengthened again."

"Each time it is washed, goodness knows. How many more inches she grows. 'Twas ever that way With Rosalie May, That dress, when 'twas new, reached her toes."

"You may not believe, but 'tis true—Each washing would prove it to you—If Rosalie May Keeps growing each day, Not one of her dresses will do."

THE BEST KIND OF PROTECTION.

you can give your home is to install electricity. Burglaries seldom occur in homes where an up-to-date electric system is in use. By the simple pressure of a button, you can flood your home with light and no burglar will tarry long where he is likely to be seen. Also an electric burglar alarm system will announce any effort to force an opening. These are only two of the many uses to which electricity can be put to about your home.
